Re: Seamus Kelly & Sons, Gorey, Co. Wexford - licence application 202-1

Dear Sirs,

The above named operator has a Waste Collection Permit for County Wicklow (reference ESS/15/54/24). According to his AER for 2003, Seamus Kelly disposed of 1340tonnes of MSW from County Wicklow at 2 sites in Northern Ireland, namely, Tyrone Waste Recycling Ltd., Cookstown and Fermanagh Waste Recycling Ltd., Teemore, Co. Fermanagh. Just 180.67tonnes went to the Wexford landfill at Killurin (licence 16-1)

Our enforcement officers have reported increased activity lately. The information is that Northern Registered lorries stay overnight at a motel known as 'The Tap' on the N11, 10 miles north of Arklow and then proceed to somewhere in Co. Wexford to pick up waste for the return journey to Northern Ireland. This seems to be a daily occurrence. We have not stopped any of these lorries.

Wicklow County Council is obviously concerned that all this waste is being moved in accordance with current regulations. In view of the application for a waste licence (reference 202-1), is the EPA in a position to give information on the legality of the operation?

Mr. Kellys collection permit is currently under review by Wicklow County Council under Section 21 of the Collection Permit Regulations 2001 and we would be grateful for any comments you may have.

Andrew Lawless,
Senior Executive Engineer,
Waste Management.
