RE: Indaver Ireland Limited, Reg No: 186-1, at Ringaskiddy, Co Cork

Dear Dr. Kelly,

We refer to the audio disks which, according to your website, are available in respect of the oral hearing in this matter. We refer to our phone call to your office on Friday November 25th when we were advised that they were being copied and would not be available until Wednesday December 1st, and our subsequent phone call to your office on Monday November 28th when we were informed by Liz Lacey that they would not be available until "sometime next week".

We refer also to our letter which we sent on Friday November 25th forwarding payment of €30.00 for three copies of the transcripts as requested.

It is unacceptable that this material should not be available immediately. You are aware that the eight week period for commencing judicial review proceedings is already running since last Thursday, being the date of the decision. Any further delay in allowing access to this essential material is liable to frustrate proper consideration of the matter and so to prejudice our clients. Please contact us to confirm that the disks have been forwarded to us.

Yours sincerely,

29/11/2005

Joe Noonan,
NOONAN LINEHAN CARROLL COFFEY
