A Chara,

The above premises has been the subject of an IPPC license review and this department contributed a short report following a referral.

In this context I just wish to bring to your attention a recent complaint of smell nuisance emanating from the premises made to this office by Mr. Jerry Quane whose house is located about 160 metres north east of the premises. The complaint was made and investigated on 20th March last.

On investigation I could smell "pockets" of an offensive smell in the general vicinity of Mr. Quane's house. I would not describe the smell as overpowering (and stated this to Mr. Quane), however I would describe it as faint to mild and for all the world smelled like there was a dead animal carcass in the area. By moving five to ten metres in a different direction and the smell would hardly be discernable at all. As stated above it seemed to be apparent in pockets. Mr. Quane stated that the smell has often been worse and that locals should not have to put up with it. He further stated the smell was both intermittent and varied in the degree "offensiveness" – depending on climatic conditions. He requested that I put on the record the complaint by way of a report to the EPA.

Yours Sincerely,

DONAL DALY
Environmental Health Officer
