I write to you to express my concern and opposition at the recent proposal of Dublin Port to undertake a dredging project that will see 9.7 million tonnes of dredge waste into Dublin Bay.

The consequence of carrying out this mega project cannot be accurately determined beforehand, but previous lesser projects have had a serious impact on the environment. Please do not allow the shortsighted gain affect the long-term health of this precious resource.

I grew up beside the bay and suffered from its pollution as a user of Dollymount strand and the Clontarf area. It would be a national scandal to deliberately return to those bad old days.

Yours sincerely,

Paul Bird
