I write to you to express my concern and opposition at the recent proposal of Dublin Port to undertake a dredging project that will see 9.7 million tonnes of dredge waste into Dublin Bay. I live in howth and this is part of my home and community, and I'm very concerned about the potential release of hydrogen sulphide in the area as happened in cork on a much smaller project. Also this is Ireland's only designated biosphere area and I'm concerned about the effect on wildlife and fauna in the area.

Yours sincerely,
