I write to you to express my concern and opposition at the recent proposal of Dublin Port to undertake a dredging project that will see 9.7 million tonnes of dredge waste into Dublin Bay. Not only will it seriously degrade the ecology of the area in question, it is also inevitable that much of the waste which is seriously polluted with heavy metals etc., will be carried back into Dublin Bay, lodged on Dollymount beach, polluted sea water will be carried into the harbour area further polluting the seabed at Clontarf

Yours sincerely,

Ciarán Hynes
