Subject: Ref #50024-01 Dublin Port Company dumping at Burford Bank

Special Area of Conservation, UNESCO Biosphere designation for Dublin Bay and Dublin's Port Company's 'Dumping at Sea' permit application are a conflict of goals.

Dublin Port has absolutely failed to recognize the importance of this natural wonder which we the citizens of Dublin treasure. They are hell bent ignoring the laws of unintended consequences along our coastal edge. When will they stop in their efforts to muck up this treasure?

We ask you as the Environmental Protection Agency to protect us and our coastal amenities from such destruction.

Yours faithfully,
Susan O'Brien
Dublin 13
