Subject: Mr Eamon Burke, Farrihy, Broadford, County Limerick,

Hi Noeleen,

A letter was sent to the EPA on the 1st of August 2017 in respect of the above.

Below is the contents of the letter:

Having regard to the above the Planning & Environmental Services Section of Limerick City & County Council notes the following:

Under planning reference 16/1044 Eamon Burke has applied for PERMISSION for construction of two no. poultry houses and all associated site works. The development requires an EPA Industrial Emissions License (formerly) Integrated Pollution Prevention and Control License). An Environment Impact Statement (EIS) has been submitted as part of the planning application, at Farrihy, Broadford, Co. Limerick.

Under planning reference 10/309 permission was granted to Eamon Burke to construct 1 no. poultry house, a soiled water tank and associated works. An Environmental Impact Statement was not submitted as part of this application.

Under planning reference 96/2083 permission was granted to Eamon Burke to erect 2 no. poultry houses. An Environmental Impact Statement was not submitted as part of this application.

Under planning reference 91/730 permission was granted to Eamon Burke to erect a broiler fattening house. An Environmental Impact Statement was not submitted as part of this application.

Kind regards,
