Re: Waste Licence Application-209-1

Dear Mr Ogg:

I am to refer to the above waste licence application and to advise that it is being considered by the Agency at this time. It has come to the attention of the Agency that An Bord Pleanála recently refused the planning appeal in relation to this development.

In these circumstances I am writing to you to enquire whether you wish to proceed with the licence application. As you are aware a waste licence, if granted, would not provide an exemption from the requirements of the Planning and Development Acts or negate the statutory obligations or requirements under any other enactments. Should you decide to withdraw the application, you will be entitled to a partial refund of the licence application fee.

Yours sincerely,

Dr Tom McLoughlin

Re: Agency's Web Site

Dear Mr Ogg,

Applicants to the Agency for IPPC or Waste licences, along with the holders of such licences, are requested to note that the Agency has developed a Web Site, which will include information about all such applications and licences.

As you are aware, the Agency has a policy of openness and transparency, in relation to access to information, about facilities which are licensed by the Agency and about facilities which apply to it for a licence. As one means of fulfilling that policy commitment, the Agency's Web Site will include, as a minimum, the following information:

- Names & Addresses of all licence applicants and of all licensees
- The closing date for the receipt of objections in respect of each application
- The Agency's proposed decision or final decision on each licence application
- A copy of each IPC and Waste licence granted by the Agency
- The Agency's annual Pollution Emissions' Register, which summarises potentially harmful pollutant releases, or transfers, from facilities licensed by the Agency
- A copy of the Agency's audit reports on licensee performance
- A copy of the IPC and Waste Management registers maintained by the Agency, in accordance with the EPA Acts, 1992 and 2003 and the Waste Management Acts, 1996 to 2003
- Other information, as the Agency considers appropriate

The address of the Web Site is <http://www.epa.ie>.

Yours sincerely,
