Re: Application for a waste licence by Valeco Limited, Ballard, Araglin, Kilworth, Co Cork.

Dear Ms. Shanahan

Thank you for your written correspondence received on 18th October, 2006. I apologise for the delay in reply to your email of 19th September, 2006 and wish to take this opportunity to advise you that the licensing unit has set up an email address called licensing@epa.ie to facilitate receipt of application related correspondence by email and to ensure prompt reply. I am to advise that further email correspondence should be directed to this address.

In response to your query I am to advise that the information requested in the Agency's letter issued 13th June, 2006 to Valeco Limited remains outstanding. I can confirm as previously advised that all documentation received in connection with this application will be made available to view on the Agency's website without delay. We endeavour to post documentation to our website the day following it's receipt unless there are particular technical problems preventing this.

Yours sincerely

Yvonne Clooney

Subject: Waste licence application No W0230-01 by Valeco Ltd, Ballard, Araglin, Kilworth, Co Cork

Dear Ms. Clooney,

With reference to above I am aware that you have previously advised that all documentation relating to this Waste Licence application can be viewed on the EPA's website. I am, however, anxious to know if the further information requested from Valeco has been submitted by them and if same will be available on website. In the event of this not being available on website I would be very grateful if copy might be forwarded to me by post.

Thank you for your help in this matter,

Yours sincerely,

Nora Shanahan (Sec. The Valley Residents Association)
