

SECTION E2: MONITORING & SAMPLING POINTS

Routine environmental monitoring is currently conducted within the WWTP at locations indicated in Drawing. Both the treated effluent and the storm overflow are monitored. Results of this monitoring and details relating to the monitoring are included.

Future Needs Assessment will consider the monitoring of water quality in the receiving water bodies at appropriate locations. A programme of sampling can then be established.

*For inspection purposes only.
Consent of copyright owner required for any other use.*

