Heather,

In response to your correspondence dated 12th February 2009, please note that planning permission is required for the proposed development, but an EIS is not warranted in this instance. Notwithstanding, you are advised to submit a full environmental report at application stage in order to address the impact of the proposal on issues such as groundwater, air, landscape, human beings, traffic etc. I note that the site is quite limited in area and would question whether the site has the capacity for the proposed development. This issue has to be addressed at development management stage.

Regards,
Orla
