Appropriate Assessment Screening Determination

In accordance with Regulation 42(1) of the European Communities (Birds and Natural Habitats) Regulations, 2011, S.I. No. 477 of 2011, the Agency has undertaken Appropriate Assessment screening to assess, in view of best scientific knowledge and the conservation objectives of the site, if the activity, individually or in combination with other plans or projects is likely to have a significant effect on a European Site. In this context, particular attention was paid to the European Site listed below.

Licence/Permit Application Details:

Reg. No.	W0262-01
Applicant Name:	KIERNAN SAND AND GRAVEL LTD
Location of Facility:	FOXTOWN, SUMMERHILL, COUNTY MEATH
Licence Application Date:	13 FEBRUARY 2009

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for the integrity of the financial system and for the ability to detect and prevent fraud. The text notes that without reliable records, it would be difficult to verify the accuracy of financial statements and to identify any irregularities.

2. The second part of the document outlines the various methods used to collect and analyze data. It describes the process of gathering information from different sources, such as interviews, surveys, and document reviews. The text also discusses the importance of ensuring the reliability and validity of the data collected, and the need to use appropriate statistical techniques to analyze the results. The document highlights the challenges of data collection and analysis, and provides suggestions for how to overcome these challenges.

3. The third part of the document focuses on the interpretation of the data and the drawing of conclusions. It discusses the importance of being objective and unbiased in the interpretation of the data, and the need to consider the limitations of the study. The text also discusses the importance of communicating the results of the study in a clear and concise manner, and the need to provide a logical and coherent explanation of the findings. The document provides examples of how to interpret data and draw conclusions, and discusses the implications of the findings for practice.

4. The final part of the document discusses the overall findings of the study and the implications for practice. It summarizes the key points of the document and discusses the implications of the findings for the field of research. The text also discusses the limitations of the study and the need for further research. The document concludes by emphasizing the importance of maintaining accurate records and using appropriate methods to collect and analyze data, and the need to be objective and unbiased in the interpretation of the data.
