Section 7 of the above Act requires that whenever a change is made or occurs in any of the particulars registered in respect of any person, that person shall, within one month after the change, furnish by sending by post or delivering to the registrar a statement in writing in the prescribed form specifying the nature and date of the change signed and where necessary verified in like manner as the statement required on registration.

Section 8 (2) provides that "a certificate of registration shall be kept exhibited in a conspicuous position at, in the case of a firm or individual, the principal place of business and, in the case of a body corporate, its registered or principal office in the State and, in every case, in every branch office or place where the business is normally carried on, and if not kept so exhibited, the person registered or, in the case of a firm, every partner in the firm shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £100."

Section 12 (1)---

"If a person registered under this Act in respect of a business name ceases to carry on business under that name, it shall be the duty of that person or, in the case of an individual who dies, of his personal representative or, in the case of a firm, of every person who was a partner in the firm at the time when it ceased to carry on business under that name, and also, in the case of a body corporate, of any liquidator, within three months thereafter to send by post or deliver to the registrar a statement in the prescribed form to that effect, and if he makes default in doing so he shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding £100."
