

Capacity

AES proposes to increase the amount of waste it accepts and processes from 24,750 tonnes/year to 30,000 tonnes. The existing buildings and ancillary infrastructure have the capacity to accommodate the additional amount of waste (5,250 tonnes); however as both the planning permission and licence caps the annual waste inputs, planning permission and a licence review are required.

*For inspection purposes only.
Consent of copyright owner required for any other use.*