Drummond, Kilkeaskin, Loughnacush, Parsonstown, Carbury, County Kildare.

Dear Mr. Grehan,

I have been directed by An Bord Pleanála to refer to the above-mentioned proposed development.

An Bord Pleanála considers that it is appropriate, under section 177T(5) of the Local Government (Planning and Development) Act, 2000 to direct you to submit a Natura Impact Statement (NIS) to it in respect of the above-mentioned proposed development.

You are required to submit the NIS within 8 weeks of the date of this notice i.e. by 20th November, 2018.

You are advised that this NIS should include sufficient information for an assessment of the cumulative impacts of run-off from the Drehid landholding on the upper reaches of the Cushaling River, with specific regard to salmonid species listed in Annex II of the Habitats Directive. Your attention is drawn to the submission of Inland Fisheries Ireland (dated 15th February, 2018), and in this regard the NIS should have full regard to the relevant issues raised concerning the implications of the proposed development on the lands within the applicant's control and consequent impacts on the overall River Barrow/Nore SAC catchment.

Yours faithfully,

Rob Forde
