

All waste accepted at the site are weighed in on arrival and records are maintained. An annual topographical survey is carried out and the levels are used to calculate the remaining void. This is then checked against the tonnage of waste accepted to calculate the density conversion factor. Based on experience the density of the compacted waste is approximately 1 tonne/m³.

*For inspection purposes only.
Consent of copyright owner required for any other use.*