Notice under Section 92(1) of the Environmental Protection Agency Act 1992, as amended

Dear County Secretary,

The Agency wishes to give notice that the Industrial Emissions (IE) Licence Reg. No. P0863-02 held by Quinn Building Products, Toomes, County Louth, for the activity 2.1 - Combustion of fuels in installations with a total rated thermal input of 50 MW or more has ceased to have effect. The activity for which the licence was granted has not been substantially commenced within the three-year period following the date of grant of the IE licence.

Attached is a copy of the Agency's letter dated 10/10/2019 to Quinn Building Products, which confirms that under Section 92(1) of the EPA Act 1992, as amended, (extract attached), the IE licence has ceased to have effect.

A public file is available at the address above. Please contact Brian Duggan at 01 2680100 if you require any additional information.

Please quote the above reference in future correspondence in relation to this matter.

Yours sincerely

Brian Duggan
Inspector, Office of Environmental Enforcement

Agency's letter dated 10/10/2019 to Quinn Building Products

Environmental Protection Agency Act 1992, as amended

92.—(1) Where, in the opinion of the Agency, the duration of carrying on of the activity to which a licence or licence. revised licence relates has not been substantially commenced within the period of 3 years beginning on the date on which the licence was granted or, as may be appropriate, the period referred to in paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection (2), and the Agency notifies the licensee of that opinion, then that licence shall cease to have effect on the giving of that notice.

(2) The Agency may, having regard to the nature of the activity to which a licence or revised licence to be granted or granted by it will relate or relates, as the case may be, and any arrangements necessary to be made or made in connection with the carrying on of the activity and any other relevant consideration—

(a) specify for the purposes of subsection (1) a period of more than 3 years beginning on the date on which the licence or revised licence is to be granted,

(b) in the case of a licence or revised licence granted by it, on an application which complies with such requirements (if any) as may be prescribed being made by the licensee in that behalf, extend for the purposes of subsection (1) the period referred to in that subsection or specified by it under paragraph (a), as may be appropriate.

Notice under Section 92(1) of Environmental Protection Agency Act 1992, as amended

Dear Mr Linden,

The Agency wishes to give notice that the carrying on of the activity to which Industrial Emissions (IE) Licence Reg. No. P0863-02 relates, has not substantially commenced within three years of the date on which the licence was granted.

I am to advise you that in accordance with Section 92(1) of the EPA Act 1992, as amended (extract enclosed), IE Licence Registration No. P0863-02 has ceased to have effect and the activity cannot now commence under this licence.

In view of the above you are advised to contact your local & sanitary authority with regard to fulfilling any environmental regulatory requirements.

Please quote the above reference in future correspondence in relation to this matter. If you have any queries, contact Brian Duggan at 01 268 0100.

Yours sincerely
