Subject: Killycronaghan Historical landfill

Hi Ewa

In relation to your query I can confirm that the borewell that is located approx. 1.25Km NE of the Killycronaghan site is Templetate Borewell and this is a public supply borewell for Smithborough village.

In relation to the water supply for Clones town, the sources of the supply are Corconnelly lake, Carnrow Lake, Sherrick Lake and 2 borewells at Coolnarte and Cavanreagh. These sources are all located relatively close together around an area known as Scotshouse but are quite a distance from the landfill site itself. The source closest to Killycronaghan landfill is Skerrick lake which is approx 9.2km from Killycronaghan landfill.

Regards
