

2-6 Technical Knowledge:

Site Manager:

Padraig Dunleavy

Years in this position:

13 years as Station Manager Great Island Power Station.

Experience:

29 years' experience in the electricity industry in Generation (Gas, Peat, Heavy Fuel Oil) and in Transmission and Distribution Construction & Maintenance.

Relevant Education:

Bachelor of Engineering (Mechanical) 1991 U.C.D.

Master of Engineering Science 1996 U.C.D.

Project Management Certificate. Institute of Project Management 1998.

Certified Diploma in Accounting & Finance 1996

Chartered Engineer Institute of Engineers of Ireland.

Environmental Manage/Process Support Manager:

Pat McGovern

Years in this position:

7 years in the role of Process Support Manager at Great Island CCGT.

Experience:

Role includes overall management of all SHE (Safety, Health & Environmental) function at Great Island site.

Worked previously at Great Island HFO plant since 1991 in various roles including mechanical maintenance, maintenance supervision, H&S officer and various SHE projects including gaining OHSAS 18001 certification for both Great Island and Tarbert Power Stations in 2011.

Certified Combined Lead Auditor (IRCA) in ISO 14001/OHSAS 18001(now ISO 45001)

Environmental & Chemistry Process Support:

Jonathan Storey

Years in this position:

15 years with SSE within the environmental & chemistry department. Over 3 years located at Great Island as the environmental and chemistry co-ordinator

Experience:

15 years in the Environmental department working at other power stations with SSE, Ferrybridge and Keadby (both in the UK)

Managing all aspects of the licence at SSE Great Island since 2016

Operation of ISO14001:2015

Oversees customer environmental audits and corporate audits

Relevant Courses:

BSc Applied Chemistry

IEMA – environmental management

ISO 14001

Pollution assessment and control

Waste Management

Environmental Support:

SSE have employed a range of environmental specialists in different areas as support to implementing and consultation on all aspects of licence compliance.

*For inspection purposes only.
Consent of copyright owner required for any other use.*