

The wastes accepted include municipal wastewater treatment sludge, off specification food and beverage waste, expired packaged food waste non-hazardous industrial and water treatment sludge and other biodegradable waste, including household and commercial brown bin waste. The wastes are either composted or anaerobically digested. Sanitary wastewater from the toilets is collected in an underground tank, the contents of which are regularly emptied, mixed with incoming wastes that are then fed to one of the AD digesters.

*For inspection purposes only.
Consent of copyright owner required for any other use.*