

The wastes accepted include municipal wastewater treatment sludge, off specification food and beverage waste, expired packaged food waste, non-hazardous industrial and water treatment sludge and other biodegradable waste, including household and commercial brown bin waste. The annual waste intake will be 80,000 tonnes and the actual types accepted will depend on market conditions. Ormonde Organics requests that the licence does not cap the amount of any one waste type.

*For inspection purposes only.
Consent of copyright owner required for any other use.*