

Site Condition Report

The site of the existing/proposed development is an existing poultry farm site with the first (of 3 approved) poultry house in operation.

There has been no record of any spill or incident on site that would result in environmental contamination, and the site is maintained in a clean and tidy manner.

For inspection purposes only. Consent of copyright owner required for any other use.