

3.4 Site Ownership Summary

Noel Lawler Sand and Gravel Ltd. (Lawler Ltd.) intend to apply to the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) for a waste licence for the infilling of a quarry void (i.e. soil recovery facility) at the existing Lawler Quarry site. The proposed development site is located in the townland of Portersize, which is approximately 1.5 kilometres (km) to the southeast of Ballitore, Co. Kildare. The Irish Grid Reference co-ordinates for the approximate centre of the site is E281145, N195234.

The proposed development being applied for under this licence application includes for the infilling and restoration of an existing and future quarry void with inert soil and stone over an area of approximately 18.95 hectares (ha). This infill and restoration area lies within the planning application boundary (red-line boundary on planning application drawings) of 34.25 ha. This area covers lands owned by four parties (as below) located within a total landholding area (blue-line boundary on planning application drawings) of 61.09 ha.

The application site is currently in the ownership of the following parties:

- > Mr. Noel Lawler
- > Mrs. Emily Lawler
- > Mr. Simon Doody
- > Portersize Farms Ltd.

A Land Ownership Map detailing the folios, areas and their respective owners has been included with this application under Section 3.4. Letters of consent from all parties have been received and included with this application, along with full planning application drawings.

For information purposes only.
Consent of copyright owner required for any other use.