

The welfare facilities and office generate small amounts of food waste, plastic and paper. All non-biodegradable wastes are sent off-site for treatment at authorised waste management facilities, where the non-recyclable plastics are processed to produce Refuse Derived Fuel.

*For inspection purposes only.
Consent of copyright owner required for any other use.*