

Site Condition Report

The site of the existing/proposed development is an existing E.P.A. Licensed site.

There has been no record of any spill or incident on site that would result in environmental contamination, and the site is maintained in a clean and tidy manner. The licensee has a good compliance history with the existing developments since this site was first licensed.